AN AUTUMN SUGGESTION .- Now, as heavy fogs arise, and searching winds commence to blow; now, as the human body, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heats of summer, pegins to wilt and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset; NOW is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating medicine in existence, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Pever and Ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians admit, will not quell the phase of the disease which at present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy (so-called) is deadlier than the malady. But If quinine is inefficient in intermittent fevers, HOS-TETTER'S BITTERS is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract, under heavy penalties, that any given "Fever-and-Ague District" should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided every inhabitant would take the BITTERS according to directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in which this sterling invigorant and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken duly as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the officinal specifics, and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of chills and fever. Vigor is the thing most needful in these cases, as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affec-tions, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the safest, surest, and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concected.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO EXTORT MONEY. CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO EXTORT MONEY.

—Two men, surnamed Harmer and Irelan', had a hearing before Recorder Eneu yesterday afternoon, charged with extorting money from Henry Wagner, distiller, at Broad and Cumberland streets. It was testified that Mr. Wagner's distillery was visited by the above, who represented that there had been an evasion of the Revenue law, and that the distillery would be seized. A proposition was made to settle for seized. A proposition was made to settle for $500; but that was thought to be too high, and $260 was settled upon. On Monday last $120 was paid, when the parties were detected, and held in $1500 bail each to answer at Court. They are not revenue officers, as represented, and had no authority to visit the distillery.

Assault.-John Griffith and Nathaniel Assault.—John Griffith and Nathaniel Wiley, John Earnest and Michael Sloak, were creating a disturbance night before last, in the bar-toom of a tavern in Nicetown, when the preprietor ordered them out. They refused, and he called upon Officer Layler, who, when attempting to eject them, was set upon and violently assaulted. Another officer coming to the rescue, the two first-named worthies were arrested, and the latter some time afterwards at Ri-ing Sun, where they had gone. Alderman Thomas committed them.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT .- James Brown, a A MORDEROUS ASSAULT.—James Brown, a colored man, in a quarrel brought on by some trivial dispute with Charles Cope, at Tweith and Sergeant streets, made a violent attack on the latter, and drawing a razor from his pocket, murderously assaulted Cope, inflicting frightful gashes on his face, neck, and right arm. He was chased by some men down Sergeant street into Ninth, where he jumped right into the fire by Inlling into the hands of Detective Brown, who arrested him. He was sommitted to prison for a hearing. for a hearing.

STEALING, AND RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS. This liquor they sold to George King. Twenty-third and Race streets, and John Claus, Thirteenth and Vine streets. The two latter individuals were arrested, and held for receiving stolen goods by Alderman Godbou. Alderman Hurley held the boys in de ault of $800 ball

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY. - Edward Warman was taken in custody yesterday, charged with conspiracy and attempting to defraud. It is alleged that himself and two other men formed alleged that himself and two other men formed a copartnership in the skin-dressing business; that he and a second conspired to deprive the third of his just share of the profits. Their place of business was on Margaretta street. He was arrested in No. 125, on the same street. He was held for a further hearing by Recorder Encu.

THREATENING TO KILL .- Frederick Wingerd researching to Kill.—Frederick Wingerd got into a dispute with the proprietor of the Park Hotel, Mr. Howell, and assaulted the latter. Soon after—yesterday about four o'clock—he returned, and flourishing a pistol, threatened to shoot Mr. Howell. He was arrested at Twenty-ninth and Brown streets, and held by Alderman Pancoast in default of bail. He says he came from Morris City.

Horse Thieves. - Joseph Donnelly and Lister Watson were yesterday arrested in the First Police District, charged with the larceny of a horse and wagon, which they took from before a tavern in the lower portion of the city. When arrested, Alexander Boyd essayed to rescue them, but was himself nabbed, and carried off captive. All three were committed in default of $1000 ball each 'to answer, by Alderman Mink.

PICKPOCKET ARRESTED .- Joseph Sleven, precodous pickpocket of sixteen years, was arrested last night by Officer Banker, for picking the pocket of an elderly gentleman, in the auction store at Seventh and Chesnut streets, of some valuable documents, which he thought were a pocket-book. THE LINCOLN FUND .- The Pittsburg (Pa.)

Gazette asks a question:—
"After Mr. Lincoln's death a move was made "After Mr. Lincoln's death a move was made to raise a Lincoln Fund by subscriptions of one dollar. The amounts thus collected were to be sent to B. B. Sherman, of New York, who was endorsed by Messra. Greeley, Weed, and other prominent men. S. Riddie, Esq., then Postmaster of Aliegheny, has shown us a receipt from Mr. Sherman for one hundred dollars, raised in Aliegheny City and forwarded to Mr. Sherman. If other cities responded with equal liberality, a very considerable sum must have been raised. In view of Mrs. Lincoln's poverty, it would be interesting to know how much was forwarded, and what was done with it. Will Mr. Sherman inform the public?"

We are in receipt of manifold evidences con-

We are in receipt of manifold evidences confirmatory of views expressed in an article re lating to Mrs. Lincoln, but we will not willingly protract a painful controversy. It may not, however, be inappropriate to say that Mrs. Lincoln received $10,000 from one, and $5000 from another contributor in this city, before Mr. Lincoln's death, and probably without his knowledge.

Thurlow Waed.

Greeley on Thurlow Weed.

An eminent and veteran liar addresses himself day after day to the task of telling a lie big enough, if possible, to induce the Tribune to notice him. Here is one out of nearly a dozen of his latest efforts:-

"Again, when invited by that 'Medium,' Jewett." Mr. Gree'ey requested Mr. Lincoin to send him to Canada, supplicating for 'Peace' from 'Conspirators,' with a bribe of $400,000,000 for slavers."

The fact that Mr. Greeley requested nothing of the kind, but remonstrated against being sent when Mr. Lincoln's messenger most unexpectedly appeared before him with a direction that he should start on that most unwelcome errand. is happily beyond question. He would gladly have paid two other men's expenses rather than his own, if sending those two would have answered the President's requisition, And, so far from "supplicating" any Rebel for peace, the overture came to him from them, as all men do know, save such as choose to ignore the most conspicuous facts, and believe instead an utterly groundless fabrication .- N. MRS. LINCOLN AGAIN.

Opening of the Subscription Book at Brady's—An Appeal to be Made to Ame-rican Citizens of African Descent—Life at the White House-Interesting Remi-

The proposition to raise a subscription for Mrs. Lincoln's benefit has received the sanction of that lady, and about five hundred letters have been addressed to prominent politicians and colored elergymen, eailing upon them for donations. A book has also been opened in Mr. Brady's rooms, on Broadway, where her ward-robe is on exhibition, for the same purpose, The stream of visitors still continues, although but few purchases are made.

Among those daily to be seen in the establishment is Mrs. Elizabeth Keckley, a Washington modiste, who was also the milliper of Mrs. Lincoln, when that distressed and ill-used person was the lady of the White House. She remarks rather plausibly that no such outery is made in France when the Empress of the French sells her wardrobe, and as Eugenic never wears the same court dress twice, and being the acknowledged leader of the fashions, her cast-off garments fetch enormous prices, and on the day appointed for the sale extravagant bids are offered, so in reality she rather makes taken by these rapid changes of toilet.

Mrs. Lincoln, however, is under a number of disadvantages in selling her wardrobe, as she neither was nor is a leader of fashion, and in addition her dresses were bought at a period when gold was 2.50, and everything selling at deathle its value even in greenbacks. Now, dry they then double its value even in greenbacks. Now, dry goods are worth about a third of what they then cost, and, in addition to that, being second hand, peuple expect to get them for less price. She also remarked that people here had not that reverence for loyalty and former greatness as in Europe, nor do they pay particular respect to relics, and a new dress has in their eyes much more value than the old raiment of the widow of a martyred President. She said the politicians used to besiege Mrs. Lincoln, and that presents would be sent to her from people whom she had never seen.

never seen.

She was courted for her supposed influence with the President's wife, and they would even come to her after trying every means in their power to get into the White House. As a last resort they would cail on reception days, and Mre. Lincoln would often be surprised to be asked by a perfect stranger, "Mrs. President Lincoln, I hope you admired that set of furs I rent you lately," "Oh, was it you sent them?" she would reply; "really I am at a loss to thank you for your kindness." "Not at all, madam, it was but a slight and worthless token of the deep cateem I have for the talents of one whose in trinsic merit would, irrespective of your present never seen.

esteem I have for the taients of one whose intrinsic merit would, irrespective of your present exalted position, make you an ornsment in the highest circles of the most civilized society."
Thus bespattered with fulsome flattery from a vile politician, who would insidiously ask for a favor, she, after receiving his presents and believing his flattering, would find it difficult to refuse. This was the case for the first few months; but Mr. Lincoln (to use his own phrase)
"and down on it," and many scenes, when his "shit down on it," and many scenes, when his wife was gonded on to ask for place by officeeekers, took place. The following subscriptions for the relief of the family of Mr. Lincoln were yesterday entered on the book kept for that purpose at Mr.

Brady's rooms:-John M, Harrington $50.00 To save National Disgrace $60.00 homas H. Bradley..... Cash 100 John Smollett 100 John H. Evans Johnson (colored) ... Mrs. Quimby..... Mrr. W. W. Ball....

An appeal of a more general nature is to be made to the colored people throughout the Union, and it is estimated that if each would give but five cents a handsome sum would be reslized, amounting probably to $200,000. The following letter from Chicago gives a statement of Mrs. Lincoln's estate, and the amount she has, or ought to have, in ready money and real

"Chicago, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Lincoln was the owner of a fashionable four-story marble front house, bought two years ago at a cost of $16,000, which could be sold to-day for $25,000. This dwelling is said to have been completely furnished in the most elegant style, which furniture was sold at auction, realising almost its full retail value when Mrs. Lincoln discontinued housekeeping last summer. At the same time she parted with a valuable carriage and span of horses, besides the usual appropriate accementes of a first-class equipage, so that at the beginning of the summer, or rather inte in the appring, Mrs. Lincoln must have had at least $10,000 in ready money. She spent the summer very quietty and economically at Racine, situated a few miles from Lake Michigan. It was very generally published that Mr. Lincoln had accumulated $55,000, which were invested in Government bounds, on deposit in Washington. This, with the addition of Mrs. Lincoln's personal estate inherited by Mrs. Lincoln to be about $110,000, to say nothing of the real estate described in the inventory of the Lincoln testate recently published."—N. COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Jadge Ludlow—T. B. Dwight, Assistant District Attorney.—Jas.

M. Bailey pleaded guilty to a charge of the larceny,

Seventh street, above Chesnut, The prisoner is a man of about forty years, having thin grey hair and beard, and of a respectable, shrewd appearance. He has been in the employ of Messrs. Sellers & Co. for some years back, and had their entire confidence in his department of the business.

About three years ago, so far as is known, he began his dishorest proceedings, and embezzled money by receiving it during the Cashier's absence, by collecting bills without authority, by using bank checks made payable to the bearer at the order of Sellers & Co., never making any return or report of these acts, and by making laise returns of his sales, no that his transcribing sheets and the receipt of cash by the Cashier balanced. The frauds were at length distovered in the early part of September, by means of a small private mark on the transcript sheets, and by years.

The Judge, in passing sentence, said the defendant small private mark on the transcript sheets, and by years.

The Judge, in passing sentence, said the defendant had acknowledged himself gullty of an aggravated offense. When a poor, ignorant man is severely punished for stealing a few dollars with which to buy his bread, a man in easy circumstances, educated and adroit, stealing by system great sums of money from a responsible firm in our city, surely deserved a more severe penalty. While it gave him pain to do so, yet ne would unhesitatingly impose the null semisance of the law, in order to punish him and deter others by his example. Sentenced to the Eastern Peniteritary for three years.

The trial of cross bills, charging Michael Comiy and Franklin Thorne with assault and battery, took up the rest of the morning. Each party alleged gross attacks by the other, and manly, justifiable, etc., elf-defense on his own side.

At the close of our report the jury had not decided the case.

AN IMPORTANT JUDICIAL DECISION

The Constitutionality of the Civil Rights Bill affirmed.

Et ., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Site.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16,-In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, a hearing was had before Chief Justice Chase, upon the petition of Elizabeth Turner, colored, by her next friend, Charles Henry Minsky, addressed to the Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice of the Circuit Court of the United States in and for the Maryland District. The petition alleges that she is the child of Elizabeth Minsky, formerly Elizabeth Turner; that she is restrained of her liberty and held in custody by Philemon T. Hambleton, Talbot county, Maryland, in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States. Also, that the petitioner is restrained of her liberty by virtue of certain alleged indentures of apprenticeship made not in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland as applicable to the binding of white children. The petitioner prays the Court for a writ of habeas corpus addressed to said Hambleton, requiring him to produce in Court the person of petitioner, and to certify the true cause of her detention, and to show cause, if any he has, why petitioner should not be discharged.

Signed by H. Stockbridge and Nathan M. Purdy, attorneys for petitioners,

The petition was filed September 20, and endorsed. Writ granted as prayed, returnable October 15, 1867.

Signed S. P. Chase, Chief Justice of the United States. The master, P. T. Hambleton, made the following reply:-

"In obedience to the command of the within writ, I hereby produce the body of Elizabeth Turner, together with a copy of the indenture of apprenticeship, showing the cause of her capture and detention, and respectfully await the action of your Honor."

The petitioner appeared by counsel, and the Chief Justice inquired of the respondent if he had counsel in court? He replied in the negative, and said he would let the matter be settled by the Court.

The Chief Justice stated that he would prefer that the case should be fully argued. The respondent stated that the child and its mother were formerly his slaves, and were set free by the Constitution, which went into operation on November 1, 1864. The child was apprenticed November 3, 1864, two days after she was emancipated, and the law of Congress, called the Civil Rights Bill, was pa-sed since the child was indentured, April 9, 1866.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO BYENING THERBRAPHL] WASHINGTON, Oct. 16. . General Grant Rustleating.

General Grant will leave town this afternoon, and be absent to-morrow, on a short trip to the country, for a little relaxation from the pressing business of his office. General Hancock's Movements.

The extension of time granted to General Hancock to report at New Orleans expired yesterday, but it is understood he was allowed to extend it a week or ten days longer, until the yellow fever had disappeared from that city, and this will account for his non-arrival there

Personal. Among the visitors at the White House this morning were Dan. Voorliees, of Indiana, and Joseph R. Flanigan, of Philadelphia.

Hon. Caleb N. Taylor, of the Fifth District, Pennsylvania, arrived this morning, accompanied by Collector Barnsley, of that district, who is here in reference to Internal Revenue affairs. Hon. Ulyases Mercur, of Pennsylvania, is also here, and will leave to-morrow with the House Committee on Southern Railroads, of which he is a member, for the South, upon their investigating tour. The Committee will not proceed further south at present than Atlanta, Georgia, until the yellow fever abates. The Richmond Whisky Frauds.

It is understood the distillers and whisky men whose operations Collector Barosley has latterly made rather dangerous, by the recent raids upon them by the revenue officers at Port Richmond, have attempted to turn the tables on him, and he is here to meet any charges that may be made against him. PRESS CLUB.-There will be a meeting of the Press Club this afternoon, at No. 515 Chesnut street. All members are sequested to attend, as business of unusual importance will come up. ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING .- At 9 o'clock this morning, John Gallagher, aged fifteen years, was shot in the side by a boy named John Nolen, while out gunning. Taken to the Episcopal Hospital.
